

- Since 2019 -

We Let Our Work Speak for Itself

Who are we?

We are a 'not-so-traditional', highly efficient, transparent, and committed modelling agency. At the heart of our business lies our diverse approach to model management. Ditching the traditional concept of who is good enough to be a model, we pride ourselves on being one of the most diverse and creative modelling agencies in Belgium.

Who are you?

Have you always dreamt of seeing yourself on huge billboards? Does walking on ramp tempts you or still photography is your thing? Don't wait around anymore and send your portfolio as soon as possible.

Why are we?

We are here to turn your dreams into reality. As aspiring models, we see millions of faces struggling to get a chance to prove their mettle. We act as a bridge for aspiring models to use our platform and show what they've got. We believe in diversity and promoting diverse and talented faces we discover.

How it started?

It all started with a flicker to make a mark in the fashion industry. And just when the fashion industry transcended and surpassed like never before, we decided to provide a platform to all those wishful individuals who take modelling as a passion rather than profession.

New faces

Before we tell you what gems we have, remember it is never about the face only! We hoard diverse, dynamic, and spirited faces who have what it takes to be a model. Our faces have the instincts to break in the industry, work with professionalism, and look into the eye of the camera with utmost confidence.

Enter the World of Your Dreams

Step into a world filled with charms, allures and fascinations. At Antwerp Models, we work with dedication to find the new faces with a strong repertoire of both models and clients. Following the footsteps of some of the industry giants, we strive hard to surpass the set standards in order to make our mark. When it comes to unveiling new talent across the boards, we have achieved a desirable reputation in the industry since our inception.

Your Journey

Have you been seeking for a kick-start to your modelling career? Look no more here and there, because we have the perfect opportunity for you to begin your prosperous voyage.

Start your successful journey with us and see yourself reaching for new heights within months.